Features

Rich, luxurious, and inviting just like the loveable confectionary that inspired its name. The All Sorts range of lounges and ottomans from The SD Element combines these traits by layering contrasting densities of foam to give a soft and supportive seat that has a sensitivity to commercial ergonomics. Wrapped with an overlay of luxurious feather and down, the All Sorts range provides a softer aesthetic with commercial endurance.

100% Australian designed and manufactured by The SD Element, the All Sorts range is finished in your choice of contract fabric or leather and features a European style cross stitch detail, with the thread available in a limited range of colours. The All Sorts range features small and large ottomans, single and double seat lounges, a low seat "lounger", as well as a chaise lounge. The range is also available in outdoor versions.
